Product description

This high-quality front bonnet or boot lid, specially designed for the Porsche Carrera GT model 980, is an indispensable original spare part for all owners of this exclusive vehicle model. The bonnet bears the OEM numbers 98051141101G2X, 98051141100G2X and 98051101100G2X, which confirm its compatibility and authenticity as a genuine Porsche part.

Although the boot lid is used, it is in very good condition with only minimal signs of use or storage. It is important to note that the colour of the lid may differ from the image. Repainting may be necessary to correct minor defects such as scratches. However, this offers the opportunity to match the bonnet exactly to the colour of your vehicle.

This boot lid is ideal for the maintenance or restoration of your Porsche Carrera GT. It not only guarantees the quality you expect from Porsche, but also ensures that the characteristics and value of your sports car are preserved. An original part like this is crucial for maintaining the integrity and performance of your Porsche.
