Product description

This rear spoiler, specifically designed for the Porsche 911 model 997.2 GT3 RS Facelift 2010, is a high-quality carbon fiber component that enhances both the aesthetics and aerodynamics of your vehicle. Crafted from lightweight yet durable carbon fiber, this spoiler is ideal for those seeking to improve their car's performance and stability at high speeds.

The part numbers for this rear spoiler are 997512265A8 and 99751226597, ensuring a perfect fit and compatibility with the Porsche 911 model 997.2 GT3 RS Facelift. This component is used but in excellent condition, showing no signs of damage, and is an original Porsche part, guaranteeing authenticity and quality.

Installing this carbon fiber rear spoiler not only adds a sleek, aggressive look to your Porsche but also contributes to enhanced aerodynamic properties, reducing lift and increasing downforce. This can lead to better handling and stability, particularly during high-speed driving and cornering.

Whether you're looking to upgrade your vehicle for aesthetic reasons or to improve its performance on the track, this Porsche 911 997.2 GT3 RS Facelift rear spoiler is an excellent choice for any enthusiast seeking to enhance their driving experience with genuine Porsche parts.
