Product description

This LED headlight is specially designed for the Porsche Macan, model 95B, built between 2022 and 2025, and provides an excellent lighting solution for the left side of the vehicle. The headlight is equipped with advanced Porsche Dynamic Light System Plus (PDLS+) technology, which includes adaptive light distribution and dynamic cornering light function to optimally illuminate the road at night or in poor visibility conditions.

The original OEM numbers for this replacement part are 95B941077M and 95B941077F, confirming its authenticity and compatibility with the corresponding vehicle models. This headlight is a used original part from Porsche and is in very good condition with no damage.

Using original parts such as this LED headlight not only ensures a perfect fit and functionality, but also maintains the value and safety standards of your Porsche Macan. Ideal for replacement or as an upgrade to improve the performance and appearance of your vehicle.
