Product description

This high-quality mounting frame for the bumper of the Porsche Panamera, model series 976, is specially designed for the left side of the Turbo model. With the OEM number 976807681A OK1, this original Porsche product guarantees exact compliance with the manufacturer's specifications, ensuring a perfect fit and excellent quality.

The mounting frame is new, unused and has no damage whatsoever. As an essential component, it is used to secure and correctly position the grille in the bumper. This not only contributes to the aesthetic appearance of the vehicle, but also fulfils important protective functions. It protects the engine compartment behind it from road dirt and small debris, which is essential for repairs or upgrades, especially after an accident or when the original part is worn.

The use of original parts such as this mounting frame ensures that the performance and value of your Porsche Panamera are maintained. Ideal for vehicle owners who value authenticity and quality and do not want to compromise on the maintenance and repair of their vehicle.
