Product description

This Porsche PCCB ceramic brake disc (OEM number: 992615301AD-002) is specially designed for the front axle on the left side and fits various Porsche 911 models, including the 991 Turbo and the 991.2 Carrera2, Carrera S, Carrera4 and Carrera4S. This is an original Porsche part, but it is used and damaged, as shown in the pictures. Despite the damage, this brake disc offers the high performance and quality you would expect from Porsche ceramic brakes, which are known for their durability and improved braking performance under various conditions. Please note that due to the condition of the brake disc, we recommend that it be inspected and possibly professionally evaluated before use. Ideal for Porsche 911 owners who are looking for an original part and are willing to carry out the necessary repairs to restore the brake disc to fully functional condition.
